SUMMARY

This bill would allow a state body to hold closed session meetings to discuss threats or potential threats of criminal activity.

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT

The August 5, 2002, amendments specify that after a closed session meeting to consider matters posing a threat or potential threat of criminal activity, the state body must provide written notification to the Legislative Analyst that a closed session was held, the general nature of the matters considered, and whether any action was taken in closed session.

This amendment also resolved a technical consideration discussed in the department's analysis of the bill as amended June 25, 2002, by changing the extension provision to allow legislation to be enacted before January 1, 2006, rather than 1996. The remaining technical consideration is included below. The remainder of the department's analysis of the bill as amended June 25, 2002, still applies.
